For Our Seniors

The Young at Heart Senior Group meets the third Monday of each month at 1 pm in the Senior Recreation Center at the Barrington Municipal Building. Dues for this group are $12 per year. Our meetings for the upcoming months will be: Monday September 19th, Monday October 17th and Monday November 21st from 1-4 pm. Age 60 and over are welcome to join. We have a short meeting, refreshments, a program and we play a game. Why not come out and give us a try! When you join the YAH group the paid dues entitles you to attend the Christmas Luncheon at Auletto's Catering, even if you don't come to any of the other meetings; this is ALWAYS a wonderful time to be with friends, both old and new!! The food is scrumptious and the entertainment and company couldn't be better.

The Barrington Senior Center is open for our seniors to meet from noon to 4 pm every Monday, Wednesday and Friday (no dues-just fun). We would love for you to come and join us. Age 60 and over are welcome to the Senior Center to visit with old friends and make new ones; we play cards, games and just have fun socializing. Monthly birthdays are celebrated with a luncheon on the last Friday of every month at a cost is $5 per person or bring a covered dish.

Watch the Barrington website: www.barringtonboro.com for any updates on the seniors. We are planning movie afternoons for the fall.

We are always looking for new members and new ideas so come on in and let us know what you would like to do with and for our group!

Funeral Director Kirk Popiolek spoke with the seniors at the August YAH meeting about burial options including NJ Prepaid Funeral Trust Fund. As Councilman Popiolek he discussed his position as director of both Economic Development and Finance and held a question and answer session with the seniors. Pictured: Ann Spencer, Councilman Popiolek, Ann Weller and Dot Pawling.

Barrington Historical Society - Speak of the Devil History and Folklore of the Jersey Devil

Presented by: James McCloy

The FALL meeting of the BARRINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY will be held on Sunday, September 11th, 2011 at 2:30 PM in the SENIOR CENTER on Haines Ave. We have a special program planned so come out and bring a friend. Who is more devilish than the Jersey Devil? Our speaker will be James McCloy who will be speaking about the history and folklore of this Jersey legend. Jim is a co-author of two books about the devil, "The Jersey Devil" and "Phantom of the Pines: More Tales of the Jersey Devil". Jim grew up in Haddonfield and now lives in Newark, Delaware. Come out and hear all about the myths, legends and folklore of this mythic creature. Light refreshments will be served. We are still looking for some new faces to help preserve the history of our town.

Mark your calendar for the November 13th 2011 meeting also to be held in the SENIOR CENTER on Sunday at 2:30 PM. We have another great program planned, "Don't fly off the handle" and "a clean sweep". These sayings will make you think of a BROOM. Come out to hear about the history of broom making and see brooms being made by broomologist Dr. Samuel Moyer aka Jersey Jerry Broomsquire. He will be making them right before our eyes and bringing his brooms for display and sale. Come and join us with a friend to enjoy a good time on a Sunday afternoon. For additional information, contact Sylvia, 856-547-9527.

Methodist Church Keeping the Faith

The Barrington Methodist Church at 140 Clements Bridge Road is alive and well. As with a lot of churches in our area regardless of denomination, we have had our ups and downs but we are still alive and listening and praying the Word. We still hold our quarterly functions, dinners, movies and such. We invite anyone who wishes to attend our service on Sunday mornings at 10 am to come and hear the Word. There is no obligation or pressure to join, just a good time of fellowship with others. We are a friendly church that makes anyone who attends feel as though they belong. We would love to see new faces, especially children. Children are the foundation of any church. So if you are looking for a place to talk to God or

Troop 96 Makes it to the Top of the World (er.. New Mexico)

Once again, Boy Scouts from Barrington's Troop 96 made it to the Top of The World, or it seemed like it at the time at Philmont Boy Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

Rory McPeak, John Blake and Joe Negro, along with Joe's father, Troop Treasurer Anthony Negro hiked to amazing Rocky Mountain vistas. At Philmont Ranch, donated by Waite Phillips in the 1930's, they hiked and camped as a crew for 11 days and nights over 60-100 miles of the ranch. The Ranch is on 137,000 acres (214 sq. miles) of forested mountains and flat cattle ranch. As part of a crew of 12 Boy Scouts and leaders, they were driven to and dropped off at a starting point far away from base camp where they began their 10-day trek back.

Each day they cooked a one-pot breakfast and supper and ate packaged dry food for lunch. At about 7 AM, they packed their 25-50 lbs of gear, took down the bear bags and began hiking toward their next adventure location. At that site, they did team activities such as pole climbing, rock climbing, racing mules, climbing mountains, riding horses, firing black-powder rifles, branding, and smithing; some pretending to be mountain men like Jeremiah Johnson. What are bear bags?

At every camp site, they set up their tents and hoisted any food and gear, smelling of humans, to a height of 20 feet to protect it for the night against visits from brown bears and other non-human creatures. They often see a bear or two, mule deer, snakes and other friends of the forest along the trail. Yes, it does rain once in a while and it even sleets. There is luxury, a shower site half-way through (maybe 2). The trail varies from 6500 to 12,440 ft high and they struggle as the air gets thin.

Once back at base camp, they look back toward their starting point, amazed at what they did over 10 days and nights. A long, hot shower and the first sit-down dinner at a restaurant are almost heaven.

You boys from Barrington and surrounding towns can do this as Boy Scouts. You can start your Scouting trek in Cub Scouts at 7-11 years old. Then you can join Boy Scouts and share monthly adventures. We do have active Boy and Cub Scout programs for Barrington boys. You can join any time of the year by contacting Brett Moonen, in town, at 546-0165 or Joe Morin at 931-6928.

Come Hear the Barrington Band!

Barrington Band is completing their 99th year in good form! We have been graciously received and applauded at our concerts at Collingswood Manor, on Haddon Avenue, where many passersby stopped their cars to get out and listen to the wonderful patriotic music. We also played at St. Mary's Catholic Home, and in back of Woodland School before the fireworks.

We presented our concert at Medford Leas, also, to an enthusiastic audience. The Cape May Gazebo audience loved the music, and our announcer's reading of the Barrington Band history. We are looking forward to having a different concert at Riverview Estates and Heritage 55+ in Deptford, Cardinal Village in Sewell. We have two Christmas concerts lined up, and will be presenting our free concert to our wonderful hosts of Barrington on December 20. Come and hear this group play - you will love the music!
