COMMENTS FROM MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNING BODY:

COUNCILWOMAN NICHOLSON – school closes June 18 so watch for the kids as they ride there bikes; July 3 is the parade at 6:30 pm, same route, fireworks at Woodland at 9 pm. Both the Borough of Bellmawr and Runnemede have contributed to the fireworks along with 1st Colonial Bank. The 8th Grade Dance was held Saturday with a “Nights in Central Park” theme. Camden High School Band will again be in the July 3 parade, they put on a great show. Thanks to Jason Houck and the Fire Company for a great job fighting the fire in town over the weekend; we are thankful to you and the Ambulance Company. Thank God no one was hurt. Have a great week.

COUNCILMAN ROBENOLT – thanks for coming out tonight. Chief Houck, on behalf of my brother I extend his thanks for pumping out today, he was very appreciative. Enjoy your summer and watch out for the kids.

COUNCILWOMAN BERGERON – thanks for coming out tonight in this lovely weather. Thanks to the Department Heads who did a great job on Government Day, it was a huge success. It worked out great having it here at the borough instead of the school, I have heard only positive comments about the event; thanks for all departments for taking time out of your schedule to be sure the kids have a wonderful time. Have a wonderful summer.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT POPIOLEK – thanks for coming out during the storm. Thanks to all employees - the Police, Fire, Ambulance and DPW for the great job you do year in and year out, especially during Barrington Day. It was enjoyable with wonderful weather; thanks Patti Nicholson for all of your efforts. With reference to the White Horse Pike we received estimates for the relocation of the telephone poles and we must meet with PSE&G so they come down in price. Rich Hill Apartments (Harvey’s site) will start after the kids get out of school; due to a street opening at 3rd Ave he wants the kids out of the way when that starts. With this hot weather, as our former council member Harry Vincent would say, please check your elderly neighbors; the Barrington Senor Recreation Center is a cooling center. Enjoy the rest of spring, see you next month.

MAYOR KLAUS – Barrington Day, which is Councilwoman Nicholson’s baby, was great, a great job; all the kids have a wonderful time. Thanks for coming out on Memorial Day, a lot of people came out this year, it was also a great day. Thank you Councilwoman Bergeron for Government Day, it’s always a great time and the kids get a kick out of it. After the Government Day event, at night, the ABLE Group was bagging food for distribution with the help of some students who are in the Jr. National Honor Society. Looking forward to July 4th celebration in town.
