(1) To give any benefit or advantage, including a pecuniary benefit, to any person for providing information about motor vehicles parked for unauthorized purposes on privately owned property or otherwise in connection with private property towing of motor vehicles parked without authorization or during a time at which such parking is not permitted.

(2) To fail, when so requested by the owner or operator of a vehicle subject to nonconsensual towing, to release a vehicle to the owner or operator that has been, or is about to be, hooked or lifted but has not actually been moved or removed from the property when the vehicle owner or operator returns to the vehicle, or to charge the owner or operator requesting release of the vehicle an unreasonable or excessive decoupling fee. Such a fee shall be presumptively unreasonable and excessive if it exceeds by more than 25%, or a different percentage established by the Director by regulation, the usual and customary decoupling fee charged by the towing company for a vehicle subject to consensual towing, or if it exceeds by more than 50%, or a different percentage established by the Director by regulation, the usual and customary decoupling fee charged for vehicles subject to nonconsensual towing by other private property towing companies operating in the municipality in which the vehicle was subjected to nonconsensual towing.

(5) To monitor, patrol, or otherwise survey a private property for the purposes of identifying vehicles parked for unauthorized purposes and towing a motor vehicle parked for an unauthorized purpose from such private property without having been specifically requested to tow such vehicle by the owner of the property.

Every towing company that performs private property or other nonconsensual towing shall retain and make available for inspection by the Division, for a period of three years, invoices, job orders, logs, claims for reimbursement from insurance companies and other documentation relating to all consensual and nonconsensual towing services performed and rates charged for the services.

ARTICLE XIV.

SECTION 321-14

Miscellaneous rules.

A. The officer in charge of the Borough Police Department shall be responsible for enforcing the provisions of this chapter and shall decide whether or not an applicant's qualifications are sufficient to be placed on the towing list. While members of the public, especially those whose cars may have been towed or impounded, may at times resort to strong language, threats and unbecoming behavior toward the tower, the tower is expected to exercise restraint and not to respond in kind, and thereby reflect unfavorably on the Borough of Barrington and/or the Police Department. Reports of discourteous behavior by the contractor or his employees may be considered by the Borough as sufficient cause for removal from the towing list.

(2) Upon completion of the criminal background check of the applicant, the finding of a conviction for an indictable offense will be considered ample reason to disqualify any applicant, unless waived by the Borough upon application and for good cause.

(3) In the event that the contractor has been summoned by the Borough for the purpose of towing a vehicle, and the owner of the vehicle arrives on the scene prior to the removal of the vehicle by the contractor, the owner may be charged by the tow the "loading and show-up charge."
